

Unit 1.2 Assignment: Removing the ISM from Business Writing

Rossell Veras

Post University, School of Arts & Sciences

CIS311: Technical Writing in CIS

Professor Edmond Lleshi

July 5, 2026

Unit 1.2 Assignment: Removing the ISM from Business Writing

1. Every intern had to record their readings daily for the spokesperson.
2. Although Marcel had a hand amputated, he typed faster than anyone else in the office.
3. She saw a doctor, who told her to take an aspirin every day.
4. Our agency was founded to help humanity.
5. Every social worker found their schedule taxing—not enough days in the week to help others one-on-one.
6. Maria asked all employees to bring their spouses or guests to the event.
7. To be a police officer, each applicant had to pass a rigorous physical and demonstrate proficiency in self-defense.
8. It is a wise person who can rise to the top in this cutthroat, volatile stock market.
9. Sandy Frain came by this morning wanting an appointment to discuss the new policies on energy efficiency.
10. Pat Johnson is in charge of safety issues.
11. He made his PowerPoint presentation as emphatically as an opera singer on stage.
12. Team B tried to undermine our proposal by introducing irrelevant references to the many residents living on the north side.
13. The average consumer spends at least two to three hours a week on their computer looking for coupons and other bargains.
14. How many of our customers would benefit from information in languages other than English?
15. Our office installed new automatic doors to assist employees who use wheelchairs.